Description

In its beautiful contemporary binding of mottled calfskin, smooth spines adorned with fine gilt tools, green morocco titles and volume numbers, marbled endpapers speckled pink, binding signed by Grosilhes fils, Place Impériale in Montauban (vignette), these rare books, especially the section on the Church and the French Revolution, a painful chapter. "Memoirs to serve as a history of the Church during the eighteenth century. In Paris, at Adrien Le Clerc's, Printer to His Holiness the Pope, and to His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, Quai des Augustins, No. 35. 1806." A fine copy in pristine condition.
