Description

Refined drop-leaf cabinet, veneered in solid mahogany. The cabinet features a linear design, with bracket feet, and consists of two pulls and eight drawers at the front, with bronze handles, ergonomically designed for storage. The upper part features a hinged door, which rests on the pull-out pulls, transforming the cabinet into a writing desk. Inside, there are eight shelves and twelve small drawers. This is a piece of great taste and class, capable of furnishing any space with elegance and refinement. English manufacture from the Victorian period, around the mid-19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 105.5 x 100 x 54cm
