Description

A solid oak drawer-style desk, Louis XIV period, late 17th - very early 18th century (circa 1680-1710). Characteristic Louis XIV features: a solid, rectilinear structure without curves; turned, dice-shaped legs with low stretchers, typical of the reign of Louis XIV; simple drawer fronts without elaborate moldings; side panels with molded bands; drawer-style organization with a closed central niche, very common during the reign of Louis XIV; entirely solid oak, robust joinery.
