Description

Beautiful Buddha head; the headdress is adorned with the Ushnisha in a tall, flame-like spiral, the 32nd attribute, symbol of Enlightenment and the spiritual power of the founder of Buddhism.

Bronze with a medal patina on a wooden base.

Burma, late 19th/early 20th century. Note: this head is in very good overall condition. Traces of oxidation on the back - visible in the photos.

Beautiful quality of workmanship, particularly of the headdress. Please examine the photos carefully.
