Description

Scandinavian teak desk produced by Samcom Denmark, 1960s. Clean lines, a minimalist top with softened edges, flush-fronted storage with integrated handles; tapered legs that lighten the overall look. The carefully veneered back allows the desk to be placed in the center of a room. The warm and durable teak has an oiled finish that highlights the grain. Active in the 1960s, Samcom distributed high-quality Danish furniture: functional design, fine materials, and precise joinery. An elegant and practical piece, emblematic of Nordic modernism.
