Description

Set of 6 oak chairs by Gaston Poisson, 1940s. A French cabinetmaker and manufacturer active from the 1930s to the 1950s, he embodies a refined and elegant Art Deco style: beautiful woods, expertly applied veneers, discreet ironwork, and impeccable finishes. His chairs and sideboards are sought after for their quality craftsmanship and understated elegance. Discover all our other products on our website: www.lantiquites.com
