Description

Nine small silver-plated metal salt cellars from the 1970s. They open with a wing on the side and have a small clip inside. In mint condition in their original packaging, never used, they are old stock from a tableware shop. They come with their original little boxes and tissue paper for the clips. Identical models, similar in shape, were created by the artist Michele Dalle Valle with sapphires and rubies in place of eyes. Height: 3.8 cm, Width: 3 cm, Length: 5.5 cm
