Description

Elegant antique Louis Philippe style chest of drawers, dating back to the mid-19th century, finely veneered in high-quality walnut burl. The piece features clean, well-balanced lines typical of the period, with three spacious drawers enhanced by a refined, symmetrical burl grain. The moulded top, solid sides and slightly shaped front feet add strength and visual harmony. Fitted with original locks, the chest retains a warm, aged patina that highlights its authenticity and historical charm. The piece requires restoration. Upon the client's request, the chest can be supplied fully restored at a price of EUR1,500, with work carried out in accordance with traditional materials and techniques. Ideal for classic interiors or as a statement piece in a contemporary setting.
