

Saint-cloud - Pair Of Salt Cellars Decorated With Lambrequins - Early Eighteenth Century

1 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 8,5cm et 8,2cm

Width : 7cm

Height : 3,5cm

Description

Pair of salt cellars in soft Saint-Cloud porcelain, octagonal in shape on a flared pedestal and gadroons in relief on the edges, decorated in blue monochrome with a flower in the center and valances and foliage scrolls. Eighteenth century - Around 1710-1725 Length: 8.5 and 8.2cm - Width: 7cm - Height: 3.5cm Excellent condition, a slight gunshot to the side of one. For a similar decoration see the catalog of the museum of decorative arts of Paris - Ref: The porcelain collection of Saint-Cloud by Catherine Lahaussais 1997. Page 46. N°49 of the catalog. Additional information and photos on request. bils-ceramiques.com

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002