A beautifully sized and attractively decorated painting adorned with a modern carved and gilded wooden frame. A painting of great character and personality, the artist masterfully portrays the young woman's features with her head slightly bowed. The painting has undergone some minor conservative restoration work, with three small patches on the back (see photo). The canvas is unsigned or dated, currently being studied. It has a beautiful patina, with the color well preserved over time by the protective glass (now missing). Overall, the painting is in good condition. Internal dimensions: H 58 x W 43
