Description

Beautiful oil on canvas signed by Eugène Lepoittevin, a 19th-century artist renowned for his seascapes and coastal scenes. This work, dating from the Napoleon III period, depicts a lively seascape: ships at the quayside, figures in the foreground, architecture in the background, and a vast expanse of open sea. The composition is particularly successful: a luminous sky, meticulous details, atmospheric depth, and very elegant use of color. The painting is presented in its original gilt frame, which complements the canvas. Good overall condition. A decorative and authentic work, ideal for collectors or enthusiasts of 19th-century marine painting. Please feel free to contact me for more information.
