Description

Superb Orientalist oil on canvas signed G. de Toursky, dating from the 19th century, Napoleon III period. The scene depicts an Oriental horseman on his horse, in the heart of a rocky and mountainous landscape. The painter offers a dynamic and romantic composition, typical of 19th-century Orientalism: a warm palette, meticulous details of the costume, the horse's energy, and a setting that exalts exoticism. The work is in very good overall condition, having already been restored, with a beautiful painted surface and a uniform varnish. A powerful and sought-after decorative painting.
