

Chiseled And Gilded Bronze Sculpture Of Zephyr On His Marble Column, Early 19th Century, First Empire

2 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A gilt bronze sculpture depicting a woman in the style of antiquity, dressed as Zephyr (god of the west wind and messenger of spring in Greek mythology), with one foot resting on a cloud, all atop a fluted column with a square black marble base. A beautiful and high-quality collector's or decorative object in its original condition, never cleaned or washed, with a lovely patina. Early 19th century, First Empire period. Dimensions: - Total height: 37 cm. - Bronze height: 23.5 cm - Column height: 13.5 cm - Column base: 12.5 cm x 12.5 cm. Free shipping within France and Europe.

Dealer

Bruno Sugeres

Spécialiste des Arts Décoratifs du XIXème siècle.

Mobile : 0033(0)6 09 17 76 24

Rue Savaron N° 8

Clermont-Ferrand 63000