Very Important Satsuma Ceramic Egg

220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Height : 50

Description

A very important Satsuma ceramic egg, finely glazed and richly gilded. The body, entirely decorated, presents magnificent, lively palace scenes depicting elegantly dressed figures in kimonos, likely courtesans and musicians, moving within a refined interior with carefully considered architectural perspectives. The poses are graceful, the faces delicately rendered, and each figure is highlighted with fine gold, accentuating the richness and depth of the decoration. The main scenes are framed by broad floral and vegetal friezes, blending foliage, stylized flowers, and ornamental motifs, executed in a subtle polychrome palette dominated by cream, blue, green, red, and gold tones. The whole piece testifies to meticulous workmanship, characteristic of pieces intended for prestigious

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

export. The top is adorned with a continuous decoration of floral and figurative motifs, ensuring perfect aesthetic coherence with the body. The vase rests on a turned and lacquered wooden base, which elegantly showcases the piece while providing excellent stability. A striking decorative object, this egg is a choice piece for a refined interior, an Asian art collection, or a display case. Origin: Japan Period: Mid-20th century Technique: Polychrome and gilded glazed ceramic Style: Satsuma Decoration: Figurative scenes, figures, architectural elements, and floral motifs Base: Wood Condition: Very good condition Dimensions: 50 cm high An elegant and refined decorative piece, combining exoticism, artistic quality, and ornamental richness, ideal for lovers of Japanese ceramics