Description

Set of 12 silver-plated oyster forks, Marly pattern by Christofle. The Marly design, directly inspired by the Louis XV style, is among the iconic patterns of French silversmithing, renowned for its understated design and high-quality craftsmanship. This set is presented in its original, pristine condition. The forks are preserved in their original sealed blister pack, never opened or used, within their vintage Christofle box. This is a vintage set, dating from the 1970s-1980s, from unopened stock, offering exceptional preservation. Oyster forks are among the most sought-after serving pieces to complete a Marly flatware set, as these items are frequently missing or replaced in antique sets.
