Description

A Louis XV period flat-backed armchair in pale green lacquered beechwood, retaining its original patina, showcasing a high level of craftsmanship. The half-spring upholstery, needlepoint tapestry, and woodwork are in good condition. On the lower rear rail of the backrest are two letters, MC, likely for Michel Cresson, who became a master cabinetmaker in 1740, and an inventory label with a count's coronet. Seat height: 38 cm
