Description

* [Asia - BING (Siegfried)]. S. Bing Collection. Paris, Durand-Ruel, 1906. Rare first edition of this catalogue from the sale held in May 1906 at the Durand-Ruel gallery. Siegfried (known as Samuel) Bing, an industrialist and later a dealer in Japanese art (he counted Van Gogh and Monet among his regular visitors), was himself a collector. He played an important role in the evolution of decorative arts towards Art Nouveau in France at the end of the 19th century. His collection comprised 951 lots of art and everyday objects from Japan, China, and Korea. 6 folio volumes, paperback, printed covers folded in a publisher's portfolio. Complete sale catalogue of the 6 booklets: 1- Sculptures (nos. 1-32) and Noh masks (nos. 33-45), 2 heliogravure plates and numerous reproductions in the text and full-page.
