Description

A rare and unique designer bar table, crafted from carefully turned and assembled solid wood, illustrating a distinctive piece that is both functional and decorative. The structure rests on four turned uprights, connected by a stretcher supporting a lower shelf made of braided leather strips, offering a beautiful texture and great sturdiness. The upper shelf is covered in raw natural leather, studded around the perimeter, retaining an authentic patina and a deliberately rustic appearance, reminiscent of antique utilitarian furniture. The sides are fitted with rimmed wooden wheels, giving the piece an original and almost mechanical look. The unusual character of the piece makes it a true object of curiosity. The whole piece has a warm patina, a testament to time and use, which fully contributes
