Description

Elegant vintage chest of drawers with Scandinavian inspiration, dating from the 1960s, crafted from teak with a beautiful warm hue and regular grain. This piece is distinguished by its clean and balanced lines, typical of Nordic design of the period. It opens with three wide drawers offering excellent storage capacity, each fitted with discreet and functional recessed handles. The chest rests on a solid base ensuring stability and presence. The generous and well-proportioned top allows for the display of decorative objects or lighting fixtures, as illustrated in the photograph. Very good vintage condition. Minor wear consistent with age, without any structural damage. Drawers are functional and slide smoothly.
