Description

A Napoleon III period corner display cabinet in rosewood, remarkably crafted and exceptionally elegant. Its slender, curved silhouette reflects the Louis XV style, with a refined and perfectly balanced decorative style. The cabinet rises on three levels of shelves, each highlighted by a frieze of chased gilt bronze, adding a touch of preciousness and a harmonious contrast to the warmth of the wood. The undulating uprights frame beautiful interior mirrors that amplify the light and showcase the displayed objects. The upper section is crowned with a curved pediment, elegantly finished with a small decorative bronze element, accentuating the noble and decorative character of the whole. The fluid and graceful curves testify to a high level of cabinetmaking skill. Ideal for displaying precious objects -
