Description

Oil on canvas rural landscape This is painted in a Barbizon-influenced landscape tradition and depicts a European rural landscape with a village church spire, trees, and a lone figure on a path.

The warm, brown-gold tonality and loose brushwork are typical of late 19th century. Noticeable age-related craquelure, surface grime, and some wear on the canvas, consistent with a genuinely old painting. Signed Van B at the bottom right and framing stamp on the reverse side. 42 cm wide, 32,5 cm high and 7 cm deep. The painting is set in an elegant, heavily gilded frame with leaf motifs. Naturalistic landscapes painting.
