Description

A series of five oil paintings on cardboard by an anonymous artist, showcasing a beautiful technique and a profound feeling for these landscapes of Southwest France (Occitanie, Haute-Garonne). These paintings are part of a series of small plein air works created between 1914 and 1918. They possess considerable charm, with most of the titles located on the back (see photos): Sunset, Plaine des Lambardes 1916; Albi 1916; Hills of Puygouzon 1916; Le Jupiler at Roch David 1916; Têt Valley 1915. Dimensions of these works: 16 cm x 9 cm. In good condition, suitable for an attractive display. Part of a set of three lots of five works by the same artist. (This is lot 3/3).
