Description

We are delighted to offer this stunning solid silver-gilt cylindrical box made in France, c.1890.The box features a two-piece pull-off lid design with a fully girl interior and exterior (gold over solid silver).In addition to its opulent gold colour, its entirety has been finely decorated with French engine turning/guilloché design, which presents a gorgeous sheen and unique reflection which accentuates its beauty. Furthermore, the pattern is complemented with a dotted design and embellished borders around the edges.The box has a lovely feel in hand and with ergonomic proportions. Upon opening and closing the lid, its quality is further apparent with an excellent flush fit and tight closure.Overall, a stunning piece of fine French 19th-century silver giltware, ideal for box collections or as a spectacular one-off
