18th Century George III Period Mahogany Tray-top Bedside Commode

2 100 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 52

Height : 72

Depth : 46

Description

Very Fine 18th-Century George III Figured Mahogany & Ebony Inlaid Tray-Top CommodeA wonderful late 18th-century George III period mahogany tray-top chest of drawers, in good original condition. The rounded rectangular gallery top with pierced carrying handles sits above beautifully figured mahogany doors with ebony stringing, flanked by inlaid canted corners. Below is a single chest of drawers with its original brass swan-neck handle and a shaped, waved apron, all raised on square molded legs. This fine quality George III bedside cabinet is not only a testament to exceptional craftsmanship but also a striking focal point for any home or bedroom that values history and quality. The mahogany has developed a beautiful, rich patina over time, enhancing the depth and warmth of the

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques
18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art
Tel : 00 44 7595603348
Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square
Petworth GU28 0AH

timber - a hallmark of pieces from this era. Sturdy, strong and ready to use, it has all the charm of an English country house interior.