Art Nouveau Brooch/pendant With Diamonds, Pearls, And Rubies

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Authentic antique brooch composed of a series of scroll, openwork, and foliate motifs, all entirely set with rose-cut diamonds. Two fine pearls, one of which is a tassel, and a small curved motif set with calibrated rubies complete the piece. A pin with hooks on the back allows this Art Nouveau brooch to be worn, and two rings on either side allow for the attachment of a chain to wear it as a pendant. Period: 19th century. Main material: 18k yellow gold (750/1000), hallmarked with an eagle's head and platinum. Proportions: Width: approximately 3 cm, Height: approximately 3.5 cm, Thickness: approximately 3.5 mm. Net weight: approximately 6.8 g. Authentic antique jewelry - French Art Nouveau work, 1890-1910. Our opinion: In excellent condition for its age, this antique diamond brooch embodies the style
