often North African or African American. Goldscheider's historical and theatrical ceramics included subjects such as Joan of Arc and Othello. When Goldscheider and his family left Vienna and settled in the United Kingdom and the United States. When they obtained a patent for bronze-glazing statues made of other materials, the entrepreneur opened a Parisian branch of his company because Goldscheider's bronze figurines were popular there. Goldscheider porcelain and other vintage and collectible sculptures are available at Invaluable to suit all tastes and décors.
