

---

Delicate Round Bedside Table In Blond Walnut Veneer: "somno" From The First Empire Period, Draw

440 EUR

Signature : non signé

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Diameter : 37,5cm

Height : 79cm

Description

A beautiful and understated "Somno" bedside table in light walnut veneer, dating from the First Empire period. It forms a bedside table with a drawer and a door, and also serves as a low column. The light-colored veneer has a lovely grain. Mounted on bronze casters, this charming piece in the Neoclassical style is ideal for showcasing a statue, lamp, or other object. Visible from all sides, this attractive piece will be a perfect addition to your décor. With its light and luminous finish and beautiful grain, it is easy to move thanks to its bronze casters. The door is neatly finished, as is the interior, which includes a shelf. It opens with a handle typical of this period, depicting a closed hand on a scepter. The drawer above is operated by a chiseled gilt bronze knob. A well-preserved and well-maintained piece of

Dealer

Antiquaire du Vallon

Livres anciens et objets de curiosités

Tel : 06 81 59 77 24

238, Chemin du Vallon de l'Oriol

Marseille 13007

fine furniture with a beautiful patina, the base is a plinth, and the casters are concealed underneath.

A luminous decorative element, it is practical for highlighting an object. Easy to use thanks to its casters and of high decorative value...a piece in walnut, less common than the mahogany commonly used at the beginning of the 19th century, priced carefully