Description

Alabaster bust of Joan of Arc by Luchini. Born in 1850, this Italian sculptor is renowned for the finesse and realism of his work. He is highly regarded by collectors. This bust is carved from a single block of two-tone alabaster, with the sculptor skillfully using one section for the clothing and the less veined section for the face. Joan of Arc is depicted in medieval costume, likely before she donned her armor. In good condition, though with a few minor chips. Height 25 cm.
