Description

A rare quadrangular vase in double-layered glass with inclusions of pink and green powders. The decoration is finely acid-etched and enameled cameo-style, depicting foliage and cyclamen flowers on a frosted background. Signed Daum Nancy with the Cross of Lorraine. The enameling is of very high quality and the piece has a perfect luminous quality! Circa 1900-1915. We invite you to visit our website: antiquites-art-nouveau.fr
