Description

A rare quadrangular vase in double-layered glass with inclusions of green and yellow powders. The decoration is finely acid-etched and enameled cameo-style, depicting foliage, buds, and meadow cress flowers on a marbled, granular ground. Signed Daum Nancy with the Cross of Lorraine. The enameling is of very high quality and the light is perfectly luminous! Circa 1900-1915. We invite you to visit our website: antiquites-art-nouveau.fr
