Description

A superb Transitional style mahogany and mahogany veneer side table with an inset white marble top. The tabletop is fitted with two silver-plated metal coolers. The apron opens with a drawer. It rests on four cabriole legs joined by two stretchers, terminating in casters. A very fine piece, comparable to the work of Canabas (Joseph Gegenbach, known as Canabas, 1715-1797). The Louvre Museum holds a similar pair in its collections, as does the Nissim de Camondo Museum (illustrated in "Musée Nissim de Camondo," 1973, no. 271, p. 65). In very good condition. Casters added later. Dimensions: Height 77 cm, Width 58 cm, Depth 51 cm. AVAILABLE AS A PAIR. We have a second identical one for sale. Upon request, I can arrange delivery for you within France and
