We try to describe each item accurately and honestly, but if you have specific information about a piece, please do not hesitate to ask. Our items available for sale have been purchased and selected for their age, admirable appearance and patina acquired over time, design status, and craftsmanship. It should be noted that these works are antique or vintage and, as such, may show signs of age, use, and wear. Please take this into account before purchasing. Shipping: Our main warehouse is located in Montpellier in the south of France. The majority of our stock will be shipped from this location. For small items weighing less than 20 kg and with a circumference of 180 cm (W + H x 2), this corresponds to a box of approximately 50 x 30 x 40 cm. Once all costs are agreed, we will arrange packing and crating if required. The shipment will then be handed over to our freight partners in the UK and booked for the next crossing. Crossings can take between 2 and 4 weeks depending on your destination. If you do not have a customs broker to arrange customs duties (you may be liable for taxes on your purchase) and paperwork, our shipping partners can assist you. These international deliveries can take between 4 and 8 weeks. Insurance: For any shipment for which you have paid extra insurance fees, in the unfortunate event of damage during transit. All damage must be reported to the final destination carrier and to us immediately so that we can initiate the claims process.
