Description

Art Deco vase with mimosa leaves, circa 1930, produced under the direction of art dealer and publisher Edmond Etling. It is made of faceted, opalescent pressed glass. The decoration features mimosa leaves and berries. This vase has a graceful shape accentuated by an elegant neck and rests on a foot surmounted by a floral frieze. The beautiful bluish opalescence diffuses light and enhances the design through its perspective. Signed in block capitals on the base: ETLING - FRANCE, and numbered 12 for this model. Very good condition. Height: 7,7" Width: 6,7"
