Description

Oil on canvas panel, framed, 82 cm x 53 cm, unsigned but undoubtedly a work by Christian Vatan. Perfect condition. Sold with invoice/certificate. A very beautiful oil painting depicting a lively winter village in a refined, naïve style, imbued with poetry and gentleness. The scene is organized around a central bell tower and a network of pastel-toned houses, punctuated by numerous vignettes: skaters on the frozen river, a horse-drawn carriage, strollers, and village life. The delicate palette of frosted blues, seafoam greens, and powdery pinks gives the whole a timeless and warm atmosphere, particularly decorative. A highly decorative work, with a rich and balanced narrative, ideal for an elegant interior or a collection of 20th-century naïve art.
