

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Bichon Frise Dog, Porcelain Sculpture With A Gilt Bronze Base. Late 19th/early 20th Century

1 500 EUR

Signature : Gebrüder Heubach

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 16

Height : 31

Description

Bichon Frise dog; a white and gray porcelain sculpture resting on a gilt bronze base. It bears the mark of the German manufacturer Gebrüder Heubach, renowned for the quality of its animal sculptures and the gentleness of their expressions. The dog is depicted standing on its hind legs, in a lively and tender pose. The fur is rendered with particular care, with a delicate and nuanced effect, showcasing the manufacturer's remarkable craftsmanship. The expressive face, with its finely painted eyes, lends the piece immediate charm. The gilt bronze base, with its classic and finely decorated lines, adds a further touch of elegance and underscores the decorative and refined character of the object. A beautiful display or collector's item, ideal for enthusiasts of German porcelain, animal sculptures, or Belle

Dealer

Hirsch Antiquités

18th and 19th Century Objects of Art Furniture - Clocks, Ormolu bronze

Mobile : 06 09 53 69 26

78 avenue de Suffren

Paris 75015

Époque decorative objects. Dimensions: H: 31cm
W: 16cm Condition: very good overall condition, with the porcelain remaining vibrant and the gilt bronze well preserved. Period: late 19th - early 20th century.