Description

Jules René Hervé (1887-1981) Oil on canvas The Booksellers in Paris A charming oil on canvas signed by Jules René Hervé (1887-1981), depicting a lively Parisian scene along the Seine with the famous booksellers. The composition portrays a tree-lined promenade, punctuated by passersby, book stalls, and a figure seated on a bench, in a typically Parisian atmosphere. The brushwork is supple and controlled, with a nuanced palette of grays, greens, and browns, conveying a winter or early spring ambiance, imbued with poetry and everyday life. The work is characteristic of Jules René Hervé's style, a painter renowned for his views of Paris and his charming urban scenes. The painting is presented in an elegant period frame with a canvas mat, perfectly highlighting the scene. Dimensions
