Description

A satin-finished, solid mahogany slant-front secretary desk. It opens with a drop-front and four drawers in the front, the central one a trompe-l'oeil. The drop-front is held in place by period ironwork. Inside, there are seven curved, stepped drawers and a sliding secret panel. Stamped under the front rail by J.C. Saunier, who became a master in 1743. The bronze keyhole escutcheons and drawer pulls are originals.
