Description

Very large earthenware pottery covered with a thick glaze. Decorated with Asian monks around the entire rim. This antique piece is very heavy and measures 48 cm high and 36.5 cm in diameter at the body. It is in excellent condition, with no restoration or cracks (a few minor chips consistent with age, as seen in the photos, which also serve as part of the description). It is genuinely old and not a modern reproduction. I cannot determine its exact country of origin. Worldwide shipping in very good packaging.
