

Covered Sugar Bowl In The Shape Of An Urn -- Solid Silver, By Hans Jacob Ammann (1750-1834) --

1 200 EUR

Signature : Hans Jacob Ammann (1750-1834)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 15

Description

Covered sugar bowl in urn shape
Solid silver
Silversmith Hans Jacob Amman (1750-1834), received master in 1776
Zurich, circa 1790----H ~15 cm Ø base ~7 cm Ø bowl ~10.5 cm
Weight 278 g-----Beautiful English style shape
Plain bowl mounted on a foot decorated with an openwork frieze
Beautiful lid with cyma molding, enriched with a strawberry leaf finial consisting of four circles of foliage and a screw ending in a knob.
Very good overall condition.
A very similar model by the goldsmith Hans Caspar I Wüest, mounted on a square base and decorated with lion's head finials, is illustrated in Lösel's book [no. 308 p. 427, see last photo].-----
On the base:
o goldsmith's mark JA [Lösel no. 27 p. 153]
o hallmarks of the city of Zurich [Lösel no. 143 p. 490 for the escutcheon, no. 206 p. 493 for

Dealer

Thuriot Antiquaire

Passeur de patrimoine depuis 2005

Tel : 0041275588025

Mobile : 0041788665110

Rue du Grand-Pont 6

Sion 1950

the star]. ----Literature Eva-Maria Lösel, Zürcher
Goldschmiedekunst vom 13. bis zum 19.
Jahrhundert, Buchverlag Berichthaus, Zürich
1983