Oil on canvas signed Sanchez, depicting ruins in the Creuse Valley. These ruins are likely those of Crozant Castle. Sanchez associated with several painters of the Crozant School, notably Gaston Thiery (1922-2013), who ensured the continuity of this school. With a beautiful depth of color, this painting is sold with its original frame bearing the painter's name in the molding. The canvas also bears the signature in the lower right corner.
