

Laertina Majolica Amateur Cup - Late 17th Century

1 900 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 12

Height : 15

Description

Amateur cup in Laterza majolica from the late 17th century. The cup has two handles and includes floral decorations. The majolica from Laterza (Apulia) is characterized by a white tin glaze often decorated with monochromatic turquoise motifs with the addition of green and yellow. This type of cup was usually given to young brides as a sign of good luck. Dimensions: height: 12 cm, width: 16 cm, diameter: 13 cm

Dealer

Liuzzi Fine Art

Old paintings, Sculptures and Works of Art

Mobile : +393494589542

Borgo Regale, 1

Parma 43121