Description

Important wool and silk tapestry depicting the allegory of day and night with two vestal virgins, one gathering the flowers of dawn and the other releasing the stars of night from her hand; a gardening genius carrying a laurel wreath in a vase to the side; all set within a lavish French formal garden, bordered by grand architecture symbolizing a castle's ceremonial staircase. Stylized frame with spandrels. Audenarde tapestry from the Louis XIV period. Dimensions: Depending on the distance, I can deliver.
