Description

This refined temple clock, crafted from white Carrara statuary marble and decorated with mercury-gilded bronze, features elegant bronze decorations featuring geometric and plant motifs, enriched with garlands of flowers and palmettes on the sides of the columns. The pendulum is adorned with a classic sunburst figure, while the opening dial displays the hours in Roman numerals and bears the inscription "Paris," testifying to its provenance from the clockmaker. The silk-thread-suspension mechanism features a striking mechanism that strikes the hours and half-hours. This is a clock of great taste and
