

Myron's Discobolus, Grand Tour

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Width : 8 cm

Height : 13,5 cm

Description

Myron's Discobolus, an emblem of beauty and a symbol of sport, is a small bronze with its original patina. It depicts an athlete throwing a discus during a sporting competition. Some have identified the young athlete as the mythological figure of Hyacinth, a boy loved by Apollo and accidentally killed by the god himself, who then transformed him into a flower. Nineteenth century
