

---

Amédée Baudit (1825-1890), Bouquet Of Flowers: Carnations And Cornflowers In A Vase, Oil

600 EUR

Signature : Amédée Baudit (1825-1890)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 26,8

Height : 41

Description

Amédée Baudit (1825-1890) Bouquet of Flowers: Carnations and Cornflowers in a Vase Oil on Canvas 41 x 26.8 cm Dated and signed lower right: 1889 A. Baudit bears on the reverse the mark of the canvas merchant "Blanchet, 20 rue Saint Benoit, Paris", active at this address between 1887 and 1905. Initially a student of Diday in Switzerland, Amédée Baudit came to perfect his technique in Paris and then in Bordeaux in 1867. He liked to draw inspiration from the South of France and the French coast for his landscapes. In 1853, he exhibited paintings of French subjects: The Approach of the Storm; Souvenir of Auvergne, and Interior of a Wood; Pyrenees. At the Universal Exhibition of 1855, he exhibited six paintings as a painter of the Swiss School. He exhibited in Geneva, Lyon, Bordeaux

Dealer

Bailliet Antiquités
Painting-Drawing-Frame
Tel : 06 18 78 28 60

Lyon 69000

and at the Paris Salon from 1861 and continued to send paintings to the exhibitions of Paris and Bordeaux until 1890.