Description

A simple, cylindrical wax stick case, opening two-thirds of the way with a screw thread. Each end is engraved with a seal: *in a circle: a goat's head beneath a count's coronet, surrounded by palm fronds; *in an octagon: a superb mavelot (intertwined initials beneath a count's coronet, surrounded by scrolling foliage). An indestructible wrought iron object, work of a workshop in Nuremberg or Augsburg, which specialized in this type of craftsmanship, for export to France where it was engraved, dating from reign of Louis XIV, circa 1700. 9cm x 2cm. Good condition. This lot is available for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or PayPal. - eclectic - We are not experts, but have been in the business for over 50 years. Hassle-free refund in case of disappointment.
