Description

This gilt-leaf mirror, dating from the Louis Philippe period of the early 19th century, is a decorative piece of great elegance. Slightly rounded at the top, it features a molded, beaded, and engraved frame adorned with geometric and floral motifs. The gilding gives the mirror a brilliance and sophistication that immediately catches the eye. Although the glass has been replaced, the mirror retains its charm and authenticity, making it a centerpiece in any interior. Period: Early 19th Century. Excellent condition. Glass replaced.
