Description

A beautiful Louis-Philippe commode, 19th century, crafted from solid walnut and walnut veneer, featuring a striking burr walnut veneer on the front. It opens with four dovetailed drawers, each fitted with a brass lock and keyhole escutcheon. The commode rests on a molded plinth with retractable feet. The top is finished with the original Saint-Anne gray marble slab, boasting elegant light veining. Good overall condition, with a warm patina. An elegant and authentic commode, ideal for a classic or contemporary interior. Originally from a residence in Angers, France.
