Description

A fine Limoges porcelain portrait plate, hand-painted with vibrant glazes, depicting a woman dancing in a garden, inspired by bohemian and orientalist styles. Dressed in flowing drapery and adorned with finely detailed jewelry, the figure is distinguished by the expressiveness of its movement and the richness of its nuances. The delicate brushwork fully reflects the Belle Époque's fascination with exoticism, dance, and spectacle, evoking an idealized figure of charm and independence. Signed by the artist A. Grosbras, this piece testifies to meticulous and refined French craftsmanship. Diameter: 30 cm
