Description

Collector's Item - 17th Century Aubusson Tapestry "Rest After the Harvest" A rare and precious 17th-century Aubusson tapestry, "Rest After the Harvest" poetically and exquisitely depicts a pastoral scene imbued with serenity and harmony. This remarkable work testifies to the exceptional craftsmanship of the Aubusson workshops, renowned throughout Europe for the fineness of their weaving and the richness of their compositions. The central scene showcases figures resting in the heart of a verdant landscape, enlivened by a gentle pastoral atmosphere. The bluish and green tones, subtly patinated by time, lend the whole a timeless depth and elegance. The richly ornamented floral border, typical of grand tapestries of the period, frames the scene with a delicate and refined decoration. This tapestry
